

Biographies

Ruth Grier

Ruth Grier, a former Ontario Member of Provincial Parliament (New Democrat Party) and Ontario's former Minister of the Environment, introduced the Environmental Bill of Rights to the Ontario legislature in 1993.

She is now retired.

Paul Muldoon

Paul Muldoon is an Environmental Lawyer. Mr. Muldoon worked for the Canadian Environmental Law Association holding such positions as Counsel (1994-1998) and Executive Director (1998-2006). He is currently an instructor at the Centre for the Environment at the University Toronto and a member of York University's Faculty of Environmental Studies where he teaches environmental law. Mr. Muldoon has written several articles and books on such topics as environmental rights, toxic water pollution, biotechnology and international environmental law. He holds a Master of Arts degree from McMaster University, a Bachelor of Laws degree from the University of Ottawa, and a Master of Laws degree from McGill University.

Rick Lindgren

Rick Lindgren, BA, LLB, is a lawyer with the Canadian Environmental Law Association (www.cela.ca). He represents citizens' groups in the courts and before tribunals in cases involving protection of the environment. Lindgren served as co-counsel for Walkerton residents at the Walkerton Inquiry, and has extensive experience in public interest litigation. He has taught environmental law at Trent University and Queen's University Faculty of Law.